150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi @ Bhavan's

The beginning of the year long celebration to commemorate the 150th anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi was inaugurated by Sri. Gopalakrishna Gandhi IAS, former West Bengal Governor and grand son of Mahatma Gandhi, on 19th September 2019 in an august function at Bhavan's Kochi Kendra.

In his inaugural address, applauding the knowledge on Gandhian thoughts showcased by the students and experts in the opening events Sri. Gopalakrishna Gandhi IAS reminisced about Gandhiji and his life as a member of the clan. Narrating about the life instances, he stated that, having recorded these exchanges in his writings, the Mahatma was 'the chief prosecutor of himself in the court of life. Gandhi is not a picture of perfection to be worshipped like a deity.

He is to be studied critically and with love'. Recollecting the remarkable role of Kasturba in Gandhiji's commitment to the society he commented 'No Kasturba means no barrister, no South Africa (the civil rights and anti-apartheid movement in South Africa), no Mahatma and no decolonization of the colonized world'.

In his presidential address Sri. C. A. Venugopal C. Govind, Chairman, BVB, Kochi Kendra, elaborated on the influence of Mahatma Gandhi on Dr. K. M. Munshi, the founder of Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan.

There is perfect blend of the vision and the values of Gandhi and Dr. Munshi in Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, which is the binding force in the future journey of the organization, he reiterated. Sri. E. Ramankutty, Director, BVB, Kochi Kendra delivered the welcome address.

Earlier, the Faculty, Dept. of Music, BVB, Kochi Kendra offered a musical Tribute to Mahatma, followed by a visual presentation by the students. To mark a year long celebrations, there was a project launch titled 'Nurturing Gandhian Ideals in Children through Children'. Sri. G. Gopinath, Vice-Chairman, BVB, Kochi Kendra, introduced the Chief Guest to the gathering. Sri. K. Sankara Narayanan, Hon. Secretary and Treasurer, BVB, Kochi Kendra, proposed the vote of thanks.

Integration of Art in Management Education-Kathakali Workshop and Demonstration

True to the mission of Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan in providing holistic education, a special workshop on Kathakali was organized in the campus in association with Tripunithura Kathakali Kendra and Cochin Shipyard. Inaugurating the workshop, Sri. C. A. Venugopala C. Govind, Chairman-BVB, Kochi Kendra stated "Art is life and life is art"-highlighting how art acts to illuminate the wondrous varieties of human beings and serve as a vital nourishment to the lives. Ms. Haripriya Namboodiri, the Kathakali exponent was honored in the function, who led the workshop familiarizing the viewers on the language and syntax of the art form.
